DATE OF INFO 25X1A SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO. 25X1X

According to a new SMA directive issued to factories working on Russian orders and to Soviet AG plants in the Russian Sector of Berlin and in the state of Brandenburg, all business and technical directors, sectional chiefs, engineers, foremen, specialists, and other skilled and essential workers in their employ were to prepare curricula vitae. These curricula vitae were to include lists of special abilities and training and of former employment. They were not to exceed three-quarters of a typewritten page in length and were to be written on the left-hand side of the page only; on the right-hand side the employer firm would supply a Russian translation of the German text. The completed papers were to be submitted directly to the Russian offices supervising the plants concerned.
